

Special Needs Training Course

GENERAL COURSE INFORMATION:

This course is aimed at volunteers and care workers to empower them with the skills and knowledge required to engage people with special needs in outdoor education and experiential learning.

A flexible approach is taken to cater for the needs of individuals or groups undertaking the course.

This course aims to:

Explore the positive outcomes of education in the area of special needs.

Develop facilitation techniques.

Look at trust exercises to help build confidence.

Experience activities from the perspective of the individual and to get a better understanding of the obstacles they face.

We can tailor the course content to address specific needs that the leaders require.

Duration: All of our courses are available to special needs groups and can be run over a 2 day & 2 night basis either midweek or weekends.
